

HARBOUR PUBS FLYER

PUBS (place in brackets is the nearest landing stage)

THE APPLE (Welsh back) Large choice of local organic cider and perry, situated on a barge. Cosy interior and an open top deck.

COTTAGE INN (Cottage) Outside seating for the balmy summer days/ evenings, cosy interior for nipper ones. Great friendly atmosphere. Kids menu.

OLD DUKE (King Street) Famous traditional jazz pub. Bags of history and atmosphere. Outside seating on cobbled street

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR (Temple Quay) Wetherspoons bar. Good for large parties, outside seating on square.

LLANDOGER TROW (King Street) Architecturally important and impressive pub with cosy ambience and good atmosphere. Children welcome.

LOUISIANA (Bathurst Basin) Traditional pub and great live music venue for up and coming bands.

MARDYKE (Hotwells) Traditional cider drinkers hang out, good for young and old, twinkly lights included. Good jukebox!

NOVA SCOTIA (Cumberland Basin) Salty sea dog venue; full of characters. Established 1811. Good beer, friendly staff, outside seating.

GRAIN BARGE (Hotwells) Re vamped barge serving locally brewed beers from the Bristol Beer Factory. Spacious interior with an open top deck.

ORCHARD (Marina) Hidden gem, simple charm, cosy number with real character and cider!!

OSTRICH (Bathurst Basin) Circe 1745, great sunny outside space with views over harbour. Child friendly.

SEVEN STARS (Redcliffe Back) A Traditional old style pub with a pool table, dart board, stories and history..

SHAKESPEARE (Arnolfini) 17th century pub, wood clad interior, real ales, open fire in winter.

FERRY STATION (City Centre) Floating bar. Outside seating on upper deck with views of harbour. Inside with watery views too, modern relaxed café/bar atmosphere.

WINE BARS (place in brackets is the nearest landing stage)

BED (Welsh Back) Modern, relaxed bar with pool table and big screen for football. Deals on cocktails and pizzas during weekdays

PUMPHOUSE (Pumphouse) Gastro pub with good south-facing outside space overlooking harbour. Child friendly until early evening

TOTO ROTHSCHILD (Redcliffe Back) Tasteful, trendy wine bar with comfy seats inside and views over harbour outside

THE RIVER (City Centre) Cocktail specialists, lively trendy wine bar with DJs on Fridays, and bands on Saturday nights. Great classic English food!